Celebrate 20 years of Avatar: The Last Airbender with this unforgettable concert experience.

The 20th Anniversary Tour of Avatar: The Last Airbender In Concert combines a breathtaking live orchestral performance with a two-hour visual journey through fan-favorite moments from the animated series, all shown on a full-size cinema screen. This special edition also features new surprises, inviting fans to experience the story in a new light, with creative touches made just for this performance.

Original dialogue and sound effects remain intact, while Emmy® Award-winning composer Jeremy Zuckerman's score is performed live, perfectly synchronized with the visuals. From taiko and erhu to strings and clarinets, the orchestra brings every moment to life, immersing you in the elemental world of Aang, Katara, Toph, Zuko, and the rest of Team Avatar. Whether you're rediscovering the series or celebrating it anew, this is the way to experience its legacy on the big screen.
