10. Turnaround: In the event that a call runs from a higher rate time period of one show/promoter into a lower rate time period of a different show/promoter, the higher rate will apply until there has been a six (6) hour break between the time periods. In cases where an Employee does not receive a six (6) hour turnaround, as described in the preceding sentence, he shall be paid at the Overtime rate for all hours worked between the time he reports back to work and the time that he is afforded with such a break as described above.

In cases where an Employee does not receive an eight (8) hour turnaround, as described in the preceding sentence, he shall be paid at the Overtime rate for all hours worked between the time he reports back to work and the time that he is afforded with such a break as described above.

23. There will be a fifteen (15) minute break approximately half way between each meal period or meal break, or, if no meal period or meal break is provided within a five (5) hour period, approximately every two to two and one-half hours.
24. Subject to the requirements above, the Fox Theatre may schedule meal periods or meal breaks among Employees at its' discretion.
25. It will not be required to provide a meal period or meal break or pay the meal penalty until after an Employee has worked six (6) hours for a performance, including all time worked for both a Continuity Call and a Show Call.
26. If an Employee works more than five (5) continuous hours on more than one performance in a day, he/she shall receive a meal period, without pay, between the end of one performance and the beginning of the next performance. If such a meal period cannot be provided for the stagehand, a meal break will be provided. However, it will not be required to provide more than one meal period or meal break within any six (6) hour period.

For purposes of this agreement, there will be three wage scales:

- B. Commercial Show Rate: Any show where the actual show performance itself explicitly demonstrates, explains or sells a product or service. The mere sponsorship of a show or presentation shall not constitute a Commercial Show.
- C. Taping Rate: The rate paid to any Employee who is called to work on a call for which the sole purpose of the call is to audio-tape, video-tape, film or broadcast the event.
