The beloved film and its iconic soundtrack come to life in a powerful live concert experience.

Waiting to Exhale in Concert celebrates the music, friendship and emotion of the landmark film in a one-of-a-kind cinematic concert experience. As the film unfolds on the big screen, its most iconic musical moments come to life on stage, with an all-star lineup of vocalists and a full live band performing the legendary soundtrack throughout the evening.

Featuring music from one of the most celebrated soundtracks of the 1990s, the concert includes songs made famous by Whitney Houston, Toni Braxton, Brandy, Mary J. Blige, Chaka Khan, Faith Evans, SWV and more, including favorites such as "Exhale (Shoop Shoop)," "Sittin' Up In My Room," "Not Gon' Cry," "Let It Flow," and "Count On Me."

30 years after its release, Waiting to Exhale remains a cultural touchstone, and its soundtrack continues to resonate across generations. This special concert event brings that music back to the stage for a night celebrating love, heartbreak, friendship, resilience and the songs that defined an era.

Featuring Avery*Sunshine, Alexia Jayy, Jekalyn Carr, The Amours and Melanie Fiona. The vocalists are joined by an exceptional live band led by acclaimed music director, producer and musician Adam Blackstone, whose credits span some of the biggest names and stages in music. Waiting to Exhale in Concert is an unforgettable night for longtime fans and a new generation discovering this extraordinary music for the first time.
